

A new morning in the small-town clinic.

Every tool ready. Comfort starts before the first step.

Good morning!
No scary machines today, I promise.

Mom...
I really don't want to go in!

See this little magic mirror? It's just for counting teeth!

Like a tiny spy glass?

A perfect lion's roar! You're a true champion, Rafi!

Trust is the best medicine a doctor can give.

Midday brings a very different challenge to the clinic.

The throbbing is unbearable! Why is it this bad?!

I understand how terrible it feels. Let me help relieve it.

There's a deep cavity exposing the nerve. That's the cause.

I just want this agony gone right now!

Will it hurt? I'm terrified of drills and needles!

We'll numb it completely first so you won't feel pain.

Alright, Doctor... if you promise we take it slow.

We do this together. Tell me anytime you need a pause.

Monday morning at the community clinic.

Good morning, Doc! I finished the three-day medication.

Morning, Dimas! Ready for the extraction today?

Let's check your blood sugar first to make sure it's safe.

Sure thing, Doctor.

Perfect! Your levels are completely normal.

Oof... not right now, please...

My stomach is burning out of nowhere!

Can I postpone?
No, he took time
off and prepped for days...

Breathe, Ghe.
Focus on the patient!

Just a gentle wiggle... almost there...

Years of training
overtake the cramp.

That was completely painless!
Thank you so much!

Bite the gauze
firmly for an hour,
okay?

MUST...
REACH...
THE RESTROOM!!

Duty fulfilled.
Now, emergency
self-care!
